From The Desk of Chairman

Mr. Abhishek Jain

(Chairman of Ideal Foundation)

“Enlightening lives with knowledge” has been the prime motto of Ideal Foundation. With our best efforts, we aim to empower all the students to lead productive lives and become contributing members of the community by applying their acquired knowledge and skills. Ideal Group strongly believes in the power of education to transform the youth. The entire faculty team at Ideal embodies such dedication to foster the success of our students through innovative and flexible learning opportunities resulting in their all-round development.

From The Desk of Secretary

Mrs. Soniya Jain

(Secretary of Ideal Foundation)

The most important feature of Ideal is its innovative education that is not restricted to just classroom learnings but goes beyond that. At Ideal, we believe in the overall development of students instead of just academic progress. Keeping this in mind, we have created the best atmosphere for academic learning with not just modern classrooms but also other interesting educational activities like seminars, workshops and exhibitions. The faculty members believe that only with proper guidance the students can accomplish their ambitions in this competitive scenario.

Scope of Architecture as a Profession

The Bachelor of Architecture (B.Arch.) is a comprehensive 5-year course that develops an Architect Aspirant into a socially responsible, technically capable, and design oriented professional Architect. If you want to experience the joy of creation- Architecture, it is. An Architect is a sort of an inventor. Like an inventor who goes about making and designing new gadgets, architects go around designing new buildings. Architecture is a very satisfying profession when one gets his/her concepts on paper transform into real buildings.

While you study Architecture, you get to study various fields of human endeavor, including Art, History, Material Science, Physics, Engineering... anything and everything that can help improve the living environment of human beings. It is the most diverse subject you can find. And yet, this field attracts the most creative and romantic minds in the world.

Architecture has a lot of scope in India. Students who are pursuing B.Arch., or are preparing for architecture entrance exams, can look at the various career prospects to pursue after the course:

- ★ After getting your B.Arch. degree, you can either opt for higher studies or apply for jobs. Both lead to the development of specialized skill sets that help further enhance career prospects.
- ★ There are several positions in organizations for an architect such as architectural engineer, historian, building researcher, draftsman, interior designer, section engineer, technologist, art director, contractor, inspector, planner etc.
- ★ Let us look at the first option of pursuing M.Arch. after B.Arch. GATE (Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering) and CEED are important exams for B.Arch. students in order to pursue a master's program.
- ★ Besides Master of Architecture, one can pursue Master of Urban Design, Master of Design (Industrial Design), Master of Planning (Environmental Planning / Housing / Regional Planning / Transport Planning / Urban Planning), Master of Landscape Architecture, Master of Building Engineering and Management.

Education is all about holistic development of the student.
